

Notice at Collection and Privacy Policy for HR Individuals Who Reside in California

NFI Industries, Inc. and its subsidiaries and affiliated companies ("Company") takes your privacy seriously. We want you to know how we collect, use, and disclose your personal information.

Assistance For The Disabled

Alternative formats of this Privacy Policy are available to individuals with a disability. Please contact privacy@nfiindustries.com for assistance.

This Privacy Policy explains:

1. The categories of personal information we collect about you
2. The categories of sources from which we collect your personal information
3. The purposes for which we use your personal information
4. How we may disclose your personal information
5. How long we keep your personal information
6. Your privacy rights and how to exercise them
7. Changes to this Privacy Policy

Scope:

This Privacy Policy applies to the personal information of California residents who are (a) employees; and, (b) independent contractors, licensed motor carriers, interns, volunteers, owners, and other individuals who perform work for Company (collectively “Non-Employees”), and (c) employees’ and Non-Employees’ dependents, emergency contacts, and beneficiaries (“Related Contacts”), (all collectively, “HR Individuals”) in their role as HR Individuals. This Privacy Policy informs HR Individuals about the categories of personal information Company has collected about them in the preceding twelve months as well as the categories of personal information that the Company will collect about HR individuals in the future.

Except where the Privacy Policy specifically refers only to a specific category of HR Individuals, e.g., employees, this Privacy Policy refers to all categories of HR Individuals collectively.

“Personal information” means information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular HR Individual or household.

1) THE CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

A. Employees

- Non-public educational information, for example: academic transcripts.
- Commercial Information, for example: business travel and expense records.
- Internet Activity Information, for example: Internet browsing and search history while using Company's network, log in/out and activity on Company's electronic resources, interactions with Company's Internet web site, application, or advertisement, and publicly available social media activity.
- Sensory or Surveillance Data, for example: voice-mails, recordings of meetings or video-conferences, and footage from video surveillance cameras.
- 1798.80: personal information described under Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.80 to the extent not already included in other categories here, such as benefit information to administer short and long-term benefits as well as other benefit plans.
- Preferences, for example, hobbies and leisure activities, membership in voluntary/charitable/public organizations, and preferences regarding work tools, travel, hours, food for company events, etc.
- Characteristics of Protected Classifications Under California or Federal Law for employees, for example: race, age, national origin, disability, sex, and veteran status as necessary to comply with legal obligations and to support diversity and inclusion programs; disability, medical condition, and pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding, and related medical conditions, as necessary to comply with Federal and California law related to leaves of absence and accommodation; and marital and familial status as necessary to provide benefits to employees and for tax purposes.
- Biometric information, encrypted mathematical representations of fingerprints and/or fingerprints.
- Geolocation data, for example, (a) information that can be used to determine a mobile device's physical location; (b) information that can be used to determine a vehicle's physical location; and (c) information that can be used to determine an employee's physical location.

- Sensitive Personal Information, for example health information in a health emergency or to conduct preemployment physical examinations.

B. Non-Employees

Company collects the categories of personal information listed in Section 1.A, above, excluding the following categories: (a) benefits information for employees; and (b) health Information.

C. Related Contacts

- Company only collects contact information about emergency contacts.
- Company may collect the following categories of personal information about spouses or domestic partners, dependents, and beneficiaries: (a) Identifiers; (b) Commercial Information if, for example, Company arranges travel for a dependent to attend a Company event; (c) Internet Activity Information if the individual uses Company electronic resources and web sites; (d) Sensory or Surveillance Data if the individual enters Company facilities; (e) § 1798.80 personal information, such as insurance policy numbers if the individual is covered by Company insurance or health information, for example, infectious disease testing when a Related Contact attends a Company event; and (f) Protected Categories of Personal Information, for example, childbirth to administer parental leave, marital status to pay taxes, and familial status to administer benefits.

Note on inferring characteristics: Company does not collect or process sensitive personal information or characteristics of protected classifications for the purpose of inferring characteristics about the HR Individual.

2) THE CATEGORIES OF SOURCES FROM WHICH WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

- You, for example, in your application, forms you fill out for us, assessments you complete, surveys you submit, and any information you provide during the course of your relationship with us.
- Your spouse or dependent with respect to their own personal information.
- Vendors and service providers, for example, law firms.
- Affiliated companies, for example, when an employee works on a cross-enterprise team.
- Third parties, for example, job references, business partners, professional employer organizations or staffing agencies, insurance companies.
- Public internet sources, for example, social media, job boards, public profiles, and other public online sources □ Public records, for example, court records, and credentialing and licensing organizations.
- Automated technologies on Company's electronic resources, for example, to track logins and activity across Company network.
- Surveillance/recording technologies installed by Company, for example, video surveillance in common areas of Company facilities, global positioning system ("GPS") technologies, voicemail technologies, webcams, audio recording technologies, and blue-tooth technologies, any of these with consent to the extent required by law.
- Government or administrative agencies, for example, law enforcement, public health authorities, California Department of Industrial Relations, Employment Development Department.
- Acquired company, if Company acquired your employer, Company might collect personal information from that employer.

Note: This Privacy Policy does not cover background screening conducted by third-party background check vendors subject to the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. Company provides separate notices for such screening.

Emergency Contacts

- ☐ To communicate in the event of an emergency involving the individual who provided the emergency contact's information

E. Deidentified Information

At times, Company converts personal information into deidentified information using reasonable measures to ensure that the deidentified information cannot be associated with the individual ("Deidentified Information"). Company maintains Deidentified Information in a deidentified form and does not attempt to reidentify it, except that Company may attempt to reidentify the information solely for the purpose of determining whether its deidentification processes ensure that the information cannot be associated with the individual. Company prohibits vendors, by contract, from attempting to reidentify Company's Deidentified Information.

4) HOW WE MAY DISCLOSE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Company generally maintains information related to its personnel as confidential. However, from time to time,

Company may have a legitimate business need to disclose personnel information for one of the purposes listed in Section 2, above, to one or more of the categories of recipients listed below. In that event, Company discloses your personal information only to the minimum extent necessary to achieve the purpose of the disclosure and only if the disclosure is permitted by the CPRA and other applicable laws.

- Service providers and contractors: Company discloses your personal information to service providers and contractors to assist us in meeting our business needs and contractual and legal obligations.
 - Company discloses your personal information to service providers and contractors only subject to written contracts in compliance with the CPRA and any other applicable law.
 - Service providers and contractors include auditors, administrative service providers, law firms, travel agencies, benefits providers, and any other entity providing services to Company.
- Affiliated companies: Other companies within the NFI family of companies.
- Clients and customers: This may include, for example, disclosing a sales representative's contact information with clients, disclosing vaccination status or COVID test results to customers when required under contract, providing pay and time information to customers when required under contract, and providing EEOC data to customers when required by contract.
- Business partners: For example, Company might disclose your business contact information to a co-developer of a new product or service with which you will be working.
- Government or administrative agencies: These may include, for example:
 - Internal Revenue Service to pay taxes;
 - Employment Development Department as required for state payroll taxes and to respond to unemployment or state disability insurance claims;

- OSHA/CalOSHA as required to report work-related death or serious injury or illness; ○ Department of Fair Employment and Housing as required to respond to employment charges; and ○ California Department of Industrial Relations as required to resolve workers' compensation claims.
- Public: Company may disclose your personal information to the public as part of a press release, for example, to announce promotions or awards. If you do not want your personal information in press releases, please contact privacy@nfiindustries.com. Company does not disclose sensitive personal information to the public.
- Required Disclosures: We may be required to disclose personal information (a) in a court proceeding, (b) in response to a court order, subpoena, civil discovery request, other legal process, or (c) as otherwise required by law.
- Legal Compliance and Protections: We may disclose personal information when we believe disclosure is necessary to comply with the law or to protect the rights, property, or safety of Company, our users, or others.

No sales and no “sharing”, i.e., disclosure for cross-context behavioral advertising:

Company does not sell the personal information of any HR Individuals nor disclose their personal information for crosscontext behavioral advertising.

5) HOW LONG WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Company keeps your personal information no longer than necessary for the purposes described in Section 2 above, unless the Company is required to retain your personal information longer by applicable law or regulation, by legal process, or as may be necessary to exercise or defend legal claims.

6) YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS AND HOW TO EXERCISE THEM

a. Your California Privacy Rights

Subject to applicable law, HR Individuals have the following rights:

- Right to Know: You have the right to submit a verifiable request for copies of specific pieces of your personal information obtained from you and for information about the Company's collection, use, and disclosure of your personal information

Please note that the CPRA's right to obtain copies does not grant a right to the whole of any document that contains personal information, but only to copies of "specific pieces" of personal information. Moreover, HR Individuals have a right to know categories of sources of personal information and categories of third parties to which personal information is disclosed, but not the individual sources or third parties. Company does not always track individualized sources or recipients.

- Right to Delete: You have the right to submit a verifiable request for the deletion of personal information that you have provided to Company.
- Right to Correct: You have the right to submit a verifiable request for the correction of inaccurate personal information maintained by Company, taking into account the nature of the personal information and the purposes of processing the personal information.

b. How to Exercise Your Rights

Company will respond to requests know, delete, and correct in accordance with applicable law if it can verify the identity of the individual submitting the request.

You can exercise these rights in the following ways: □
3409; or,

Calling 1-877-696-

□ Emailing privacy@nfiindustries.com

1. How We Will Verify Your Request:

The processes that we follow to verify your identity when you make a request to know, correct, or delete are described below. The relevant process depends on how and why the request is submitted.

If you submit a request by any means other than through a password-protected account that you created before the date of your request, the verification process that we follow will depend on the nature of your request as described below:

1. Requests To Know Categories Or Purposes: We will match at least two data points that you provide with your request, or in response to your verification request, against information about you that we already have in our records and that we have determined to be reliable for purposes of verifying your identity. Examples of relevant data points include your mobile phone number, your zip code, or your employee identification number.
2. Requests To Know Specific Pieces Of Personal Information: We will match at least three data points that you provide with your request, or in response to our request for verification information, against information that we already have about you in our records and that we have determined to be reliable for purposes of verifying your identity. In addition, we may require you to sign a declaration under penalty of perjury that you are the individual whose personal information is the subject of the request.
3. Requests To Correct or Delete Personal Information: Our process for verifying your identity will depend on the risk level (as determined by Company) associated with the personal information that you ask us to correct or delete. For low-risk personal information, we will require a match of two data points as described in Point No. 1, above. For higher risk personal information, we will require a match of three data points and a signed declaration as described in Point No. 2, above.

We have implemented the following additional procedures when verifying the identity of requestors:

1. If we cannot verify your identity based on the processes described above, we may ask you for additional verification information. If we do so, we will not use that information for any purpose other than verification.
2. If we cannot verify your identity to a sufficient level of certainty to respond to your request, we will let you know promptly and explain why we cannot verify your identity.

d. Authorized Agents

If an authorized agent submits on your behalf a request to know, correct, or delete, the authorized agent must submit with the request another document signed by you that authorizes the authorized agent to submit the request on your behalf. In addition, we may ask you or your authorized agent to follow the applicable process described above for verifying your identity. You can obtain the “Authorized Agent Designation” form by contacting us at privacy@nfiindustries.com

e. Company’s Non-Discrimination And Non-Retaliation Policy

Company will not unlawfully discriminate or retaliate against you for exercising your rights under the California Privacy Rights Act.

6. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

If we change this Privacy Policy, we will post those changes on this page and update the Privacy Policy modification date above. If we materially change this Privacy Policy in a way that affects how we use or disclose your personal information, we will provide a prominent notice of such changes and the effective date of the changes before making them.
